Text:

Dear friend,

I am so happy to give you some information about my country Egypt. It is a lovely and wonderful African country. Its capital city is Cairo and the official currency is the Egyptian pound. Our flag is a tricolour: red, white and black with a golden eagle.

Islam is our religion and Arabic is the national language of my country. The most famous monuments in my country are "The Great Pyramids of Giza". They are the most popular destination for tourists each year due to their rich history. In our country, we celebrate many national and religious days every year. The religious celebration day I prefer is "Eid El-Fitr". Our national dish is "Foul and Koshari".

I love my country. How about your country?

Yours, Malik
