Text :

My homeland, Syria.

Hi! My name is Yousef, I come from a country that is located in the heart of the Middle east, it's called Syria. It is very beautiful with magnificent architecture. The capital city is Damascus, a city that never sleeps filled with history and culture. Islam is our religion and Arabic is our language. Syria is known for its marvelous monuments like the ancient Ruins of Palmyra and the Umayyad Mosque.

In our daily routine, we use Syrian pound as money, and on special occasions we wear traditional clothes like "Thobe" for men and "Abaya" for women. One of my favorite things about Syria is the food, we like eating some tasty Kebbeh, Fattoush and sweet Baklava. All the families come together to celebrate national days like the Independence Day on April 17th and Syrian army day on August 1st. I am thankful for being Syrian and happy to share the beauty of my country to the whole world.

Yousef,
