An Unforgettable Journey to the south of Algeria

On the first day, we departed from London and Algiers to Biskra on scheduled flights. We arrived in Biskra late in the afternoon, where an airport bus transferred our group to a youth hostel. After settling in, we had a traditional delicious meal dinner and spent the night there. §1

On the second day, we explored Biskra in the morning. Located 400 km southeast of Algiers, Biskra had a rich history influenced by Berbers, Romans, Arabs, Turks, and the French. We visited the old souk, famous for its spice shops, and saw traditional mudbrick houses surrounded by palm groves. In the afternoon, our guide Ahmed took us to the oasis of Tolga, which is situated 36 km west of Biskra, well-known for its high-quality dates, "Deglet Nur". After dinner, we traveled to Ghardaïa by vans where we spent the night in a local school dormitory. §2

On the third day, we discovered Ghardaïa with our local guide, Mohamed. We explored the beautiful old medina, with its souk, whitewashed and red sandstone houses, and its unique mosque minaret. By evening, we flew south to Tamanrasset, the capital of the Hoggar. Here, we witnessed the most breathtaking sunset in the world at Mount Tahat, the highest peak in Algeria (2,918m). §3

On the final morning, we boarded a flight back to Algiers and then returned to London, marking the end of this incredible journey. §4
