Peace is the path we take for bringing growth and prosperity to society. Achieving political strength, economic stability and cultural growth will be impossible if we do not have peace and harmony. Moreover, before we transmit the notion of peace to others, it is vital for us to possess peace within. It is not a certain individual's or the government's responsibility only to maintain peace but everyone's duty. (§1)

History has shown, in various ways, the effects of thousands of wars that have taken place throughout different periods and at various levels between nations. It is after many destructive wars that humans realized the value of peace. Earth needs peace in order to survive. This applies to every angle including wars, pollution, natural disasters and more. When peace and harmony are maintained, things will continue to run smoothly without any delay. Moreover, while war destroys and disrupts, peace builds and strengthens as well as restores. It helps us achieve security, tranquility and avoid anxiety and chaos to make our lives better. (§2)

In order to maintain peace, it is essential to maintain equality, security and justice. In addition, introducing a global economic system will help eliminate divergence. Similarly, we must also adopt a mental and spiritual ideology that embodies a helpful attitude to spread harmony. Finally, it must be everyone's noble mission to promote peace by expressing its contribution to the long-lasting well-being factor of everyone's lives. (§3)
