FIRST TERM ENGLISH EXAM

Read the text carefully then do the following activities

A/Comprehension (7pts)

Nelson Mandela was a South African revolutionary and political leader who fought against the apartheid system of racial segregation. Born in 1918, he dedicated his life to create a free and democratic South Africa where all races would have equal rights. His efforts made him a symbol of hope for millions around the world.

Mandela's fight against apartheid led to his imprisonment for 27 years. Despite facing immense hardship, he remained committed to his cause of equality and justice. After his release in 1990, Mandela emerged as a leader determined to bring peace and unity to South Africa.

In 1994, he became South Africa's first Black president, marking the end of apartheid. His leadership focused on racial reconciliation and healing the wounds of the past. He worked to ensure a peaceful transition from segregation to democracy. Mandela's commitment to peace earned him the Nobel Peace Prize in 1993. His presidency was marked by wisdom, humility, and a focus on rebuilding a nation torn by decades of racial division.

Even after stepping down from office, Mandela continued to inspire the world with his dedication to justice and equality. When he passed away in 2013, he left behind a transformed South Africa and a powerful message: peaceful change is possible, even in the face of great oppression.
