The Second Test of English

My last holiday was a five-day trip to Italy. I decided to visit Rome, Florence and Venice. Italy is a traveller's paradise.

Rome is the capital of Italy. It is also called the 'Eternal City'. My first stop was the Vatican City. There I visited the Sistine Chapel, the official residence of the Pope, and Saint Peters Basilica, one of the greatest churches in the world. I came out of the cathedral and walked around the square, which was built by Bernini. The place is really beautiful. My next stop was the Colosseum. This amazing structure could hold 50,000 spectators. It was opened for the public in 80 A.D. It is the biggest amphitheatre in the world.

Venice is truly unique with its canals for streets. I explored the city on water. I took a gondola ride down the Grand Canal. It was amazing. We also visited the Piazza San Marco and the St. Marks Cathedral.

My last stop was Florence, the capital of arts. I visited the Piazza San Giovanni and many other museums and galleries there. I returned home feeling I want to visit the other beautiful parts of Italy!
