The text:

Al-Aqsa Mosque is situated in the southeast corner of the Old City of Jerusalem. It is built over the Temple Mount and covering one-sixth (1/6) of its area. Al-Aqsa Mosque comprises the entire area within the compound walls (a total area of 144,000 m^2). It is considered the third holiest mosque in the world after the Al-Haram and the Al-Nabawi Mosque. The history of Al-Aqsa makes it an important Muslim site.

Al-Aqsa Mosque including all the mosques, prayer rooms, buildings, platforms and open courtyards located above or under the grounds - and exceeds 200 historical monuments pertaining to various Islamic eras. The mosque is also referred to as Al-Haram Al-Sharif.

Al Masjid Al-Aqsa was founded by the Prophet Ibrahim (PBUH). Omar Ibn Al-Khattab, (RA), is the first one then who restored Al-Aqsa. He recognized the sight but nothing was built. When Abdel-Malik Ibn Marwan held the office in the year 66 A.H., he rebuilt Al-Aqsa and the Dome of the Rock. Al-Aqsa is one of the largest and most important mosques in the Muslim world, and the earliest in Palestine. This is the reason why this mosque holds a special place in the hearts of Muslims.
