A thank you note

Dear beloved teachers,

One of my special memories was my first day at elementary school. I was so excited to meet my new friends and teachers.

Mrs Riley taught me English and one of the most important things in life: how to care for others. Mrs Evans taught me how to read and write, and encouraged me to write hort stories and poems. I loved writing, and my dream was to become a famous writer someday.

Before I left elementary school, Mrs Evans told me, "Keep writing, Rosemary Never give up your dream." Mr Bradshaw taught me maths. I really liked doing maths projects. He also taught me to be self-confident and always believe in myself.

The most sincere and heart-felt "Thank you" to Mrs Riley, Mrs Evans and Mr Bradshaw who provided me all with support, guidance and precious life lessons. I will always keep you in my heart! I'll never forget you.

I'm not sure how I'm going to live without your lessons and your words of wisdom. But I know that I can now go into the real world and be confident and a caring kind of person. For all of this, thanks to my wonderful teachers!

As you provided me with all the knowledge and mora support I need to be able to face my future, you will always be my best teachers!

Yours,
Rosemary
