Level : 3 MS School School : Boudriaat Said

year: 2024/2025

Second term English test

In the past , life was difficult. The conditions of living were not comfortable. People used to live in small old houses made of mud ,clay, bricks and wood with no electricity and running water. They used to dress up in simple ways and travelled using horses and animals. There were not many schools and sources of entertainment. People used to spend more time with their friends. They played simple games and told stories to each other.

Today, we live in modern houses with access to electricity, running water and technology. Now, With the invention of cars, trains, and airplanes, travel became much more rapid and more convenient .Technology makes our lives more and more comfortable in all aspects, life is definitely much easier now.
