FIRST TERM ENGLISH TEST Duration: 60 minutes

Input:

Al-Aqsa Mosque is one of the most prominent and major mosques in the world. It is located in the Old City of El Quds, Palestine. It covers an area of 144000 m and includes the Dome of the Rock « Qobat Sakhra » and several other landmarks numbering up to 200. The Dome of the Rock « Qobat Sakhra » is the oldest Islamic architectural landmark that has kept its original form. It was built by the Caliph Abd el-Malik Ibn Marwan in 685 and opened in 771. It was designed by Raja AlKindi and Yazid ibn Salam. It is an Octagonal building topped by a circular dome which is 35m high and has a diameter of 20 m. It is made of copper and covered with gold. The mosque has been repeatedly attacked by the Israeli occupier, most notably the arson attack on August 21st ,1969 when most of the southern part of the mosque was burnt. However, despite its restoration after several years, it is still under Israeli attack to this day.
