اختبار في مادة: اللغة الإنجليزية موضوع مقترح المدة: ساعة ونصف

Al-Baraka Association is a well-known charity in Algeria. Think of it like a group of kind people who decided to work together to make things better for others. Some sources indicate that it was founded on January15, 2015 while others believe it has been active for over 20 years.

Al Baraka Association focuses on helping people who don't have enough food or clean water. If someone is sick and can't get medicine, it tries to help. It also cares about kids and want them to learn, so it supports schools and education.

In addition to its work within Algeria, it has played a significant role in supporting the people of Gaza through various humanitarian initiatives. It has consistently delivered essential aid, including food, medical supplies, and shelter, to alleviate the hardships faced by the population.

Moreover, it has also engaged in long-term projects, such as the rehabilitation of hospitals and the provision of educational support for orphans, demonstrating a continuous commitment to the Gazan people. Its efforts reflect a strong sense of solidarity and a dedicated effort to make a positive impact in a challenging environment.

This charity is important in Algeria and internationally because it reaches out to people who are facing difficulties and offers them support. it works hard to make a positive difference in the lives of many Algerians. So, Al-Baraka Association is like a helper for people in Algeria who need it most.
