Sightseeing In London

Last spring holiday, I went to London with my friend John who is an American student. We stayed there for three days. The weather was great for sightseeing. The sun was shining. We met Mr Johnson who is our tourist guide. On the first day, He took us to see the British Museum and the National Gallery. We visited Hyde Park and we moved under Tower Bridge on a boat trip on the Thames riv r. Next day, we visited Buckingham Palace hoping to see the Queen. Unfortunately, Queen Elizabeth II wasn't at home at that time but we saw Big Ben. After dinner, We went to Harrods supermarket to do some shopping there. On the last day, Our guide invited us to have a short look on London city so we got in the London Eye which is 135m high. We took a wonderful sight of the city. We enjoyed our time because our trip was well planned.
