Sequence Two

1- The superlative of superiority:

- Short adjectives: (one or two syllables)

Adjective + est/ st/ iest. Example: easy ⟶ easiest.

Tall ⟶ tallest.

- Long adjectives: (more than two syllables)

The most + adjective. Example: beautiful ⟶ the most beautiful.

- Irregular adjectives: (change)

Good ⟶ the best
Bad ⟶ the worst
Many/much ⟶ the most
Little ⟶ the least
Far ⟶ the farthest/ furthest
Old ⟶ the oldest/eldest

2- The Simple Past and Past Continuous Tenses: "while" "when":

- Past Continuous: to be in the past (was/were) + verb stem + ing.

Example: She was watching an American movie.

- If the sentence begins with "while", we just put the first verb in the past continuous and the second one in the simple past. Example:
  While the teacher was explaining the lesson, someone knocked the door.
- If we put " "when" in the middle, we just conjugate the first verb in the past continuous and the second one (after 'when') in the simple past. Example:
  The teacher was explaining the lesson when someone knocked the door.
- If the sentence begins with "when", we just put the first verb in the simple past and the second one in the past continuous. Example:
  When someone knocked the door, the teacher was explaining the lesson.

Note: after "when" the verb is always conjugated in the simple past.

3- Expressing Similarities and Differences with: 'like- unlike- whereas':

a- Similarities:

- ✓ To express similarities between two things, we use "like"
- ✓ We can use "like" at the beginning or in the middle of the sentence.

Example: -the mobile is a means of communication.

-The computer is a means of communication.

- The mobile is a means of communication like the computer.

Or

- Like the computer, the mobile is a means of communication.

b- Differences:

✓ To express differences between two things, we use 'unlike'/'whereas'.

Example: -the winter is cold.

-the summer is hot.

Unlike the winter, the summer is hot.

The winter is cold whereas the summer is hot.

Note we use "whereas" in the middle of the sentence only.

4- The Present Perfect with: " since"/ "for":

- The present perfect tense: to have in the present (have/has) + past participle.

Example: Asma has received the email.

- We use the present perfect to talk about an event that happened in the past and continued in the present.

Example: I have studied English since 2017.

I have studied English for 4 years.

- Asking questions using 'How long' with the present perfect:

- ❖ Asma has studied English since 2017.
- ❖ How long has Asma studied English ?

5- Forming oppsites using prefixes :'dis, un, in, im, il, ir':

You/ they/ we are	he/ she/ it does	he/ she/ it has
He/ she/ it is

The other verbs:

I/ you/ they/ we ⟶ stay as it is. example: to clean ⟶ clean

He/ she/ it ⟶ we add "s" at the end. example: to clean ⟶ cleans.

When the verb ends with "o-sh- ch- x- ss", we add "es" at the end.

Example: To go ⟶ goes

To finish ⟶ finishes

When the verb ends with "y" and there is a consonant before it, we change "y" into "i " and add "es" (only with He/ she/ it). Example: to study ⟶ studies.

When the verb ends with "y" and there is a vowel before it, we add only "s" at the end (with he/ she/ it). Example: to play ⟶ plays.
